Overnight Kathmandu Guest House - Deluxe Rooms

Tuesday, October 8: Kathmandu

After breakfast, embark on the Champa Devi trek. The route can be adjusted depending on activity level but plan on 6 hours of trekking in this beautiful area among the pine forests, stupas and monasteries.

A packed lunch will be provided.

Champa Devi is in the south eastern corner of the Kathmandu Valley, technically in Makwanpur District. There are several routes to reach the summit, but the most popular, and easiest to access, is one that takes you along the Dollu Valley through pine forests and along the grassy ridge top. This route starts from Hattiban Resort and the trail is well trodden and easy to follow. From the resort the trip will take around three hours, there and back.

Breakfast and a packed lunch

Wednesday, October 9: Kathmandu

After breakfast, embark on your second day of trekking with your guide, the Phulchowki Hike. The duration is a little longer today, about 6 to 7 hours. Again, a packed lunch will be provided.

Phulchowki is the highest hill near Kathmandu, situated to the south of the city. You will be able to see sub-tropical thick forests filled with rhododendrons and oak trees as well as several species of orchids, butterflies and birds. From the top you get a breathtaking view of the valley and on clear days you can see the eastern parts of the Annapurna range to Gaurishankar in the east. While you are there, why not check out the Botanical Gardens in Godawari?

After the day's trekking, return to the hotel and await the arrival of the rest of your group.

Wednesday, October 9: Arrive Kathmandu

On arrival into Kathmandu airport you will be met by a representative from On The Map's Himalayan partner - IBEX Expeditions holding a sign with your name on it and then transfer to your hotel.

Kathmandu is a riot of sights, sounds and smells. Whether you're barreling through the traffic-jammed alleyways of the old town in a rickshaw, marveling at the medieval temples or walking around the tourist district, Kathmandu is an intoxicating and amazing experience.

Overnight Kathmandu Guest House - Deluxe rooms

Thursday, October 10: Kathmandu

In the very early morning.... we have a big surprise for you! You'll have to wait to find out what it is. . .

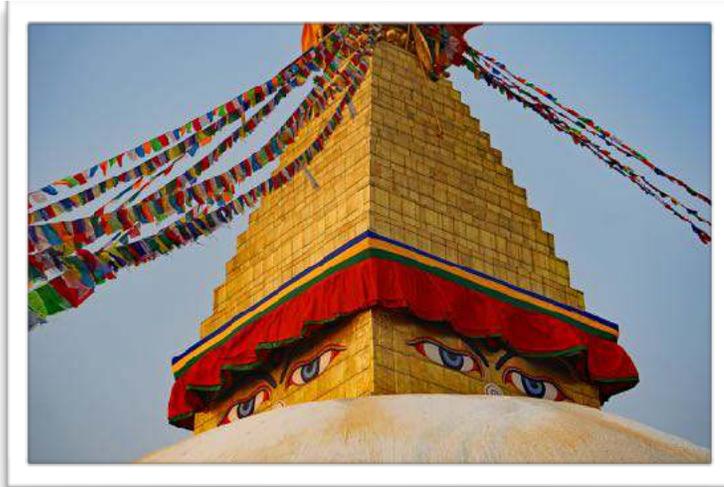

In the late morning we'll drive to Garden of Dreams for a visit and lunch. The Garden of Dreams, a neo-classical historical garden, is situated in the midst of Kathmandu city. The Garden of Six Seasons was created by late Field Marshal Kaiser Shumsher Rana in 1920. Within the Garden walls, there is an exquisite ensemble of fountains, verandas, pergolas, urns and birdhouses. There are six impressive pavilions, each dedicated to one of the six seasons of Nepal. According to Hindu Scripture the six seasons are: Spring, Summer, Monsoon, Autumn, Pre-winter and Winter.

After lunch, we'll board local rickshaws for an exhilarating ride through the city's busy streets to the hotel.

This evening around 6:00 PM visit the famous Pashupatinath temple and attend the sunset/evening Hindu prayer ceremony known as "Aarti". Priests perform the Aarti by taking oil lamps and moving them in circular motion, dedicating their act to the gods. Hindu hymns are sung by devotees, creating a blissful surrounding. This is a ritual that allows everyone to take part in a union of gods and the devotees.

Breakfast, Lunch

Friday, October 11: Kathmandu

Early this morning, we drive to the Buddhist Boudhanath Stupa to attend a private prayer ceremony with the monks. You are welcomed with a Khada (Tibetan garland) and Tibetan tea while music and prayers fill the air. The visit lasts about one hour.

Afterwards, we return to the hotel for breakfast which is followed by a guided tour of the ancient town of Patan. Once a fiercely independent city-state, Patan is now almost a suburb of Kathmandu, separated only by the Bagmati River. Many locals still call the city by its original Sanskrit name, Lalitpur

(City of Beauty) or by its Newari name, Yala. Patan's spectacular Durbar Square (a UNESCO World Heritage Site) remains the finest collection of temples and palaces in all of Nepal. Here's what you'll see in Patan:

Durbar Square, the old palace of the medieval rulers of Patan founded by King Veera Deva in 299 AD. The Square contains innumerable buildings with elaborately carved windows and balconies in the Newar tradition.

Tibetan Handicraft Center, outside of Patan City. At this Tibetan refugee cooperative, where Nepal's enormous carpet industry was essentially born in 1960, you can watch the carpet-makers at work (the center employs 1000 refugees) before shopping upstairs for the finished article. The quality is high, there is a good selection, the prices are transparent and staff can arrange shipping. We return to Kathmandu after the visit.

In the evening we head to the charming Bhojan Griha restaurant for a traditional Nepali dinner and cultural show. Built as a residence for a royal priest more than 150 years ago, the impressive four-story building of Bhojan Griha is in Dilli Bazar. The restaurant serves Nepali cuisine while guests sit in the traditional manner on colorful cotton cushions. Bhojan Griha also has the Kama Sutra Bar, appropriately decorated with erotic wood carvings, commonly seen on the walls of temples all around Nepal.

Breakfast, Dinner

Saturday, October 12: Kathmandu – Dhulikel by road

The morning is at leisure before we check out and drive to the nearby town of Dhulikel. Here, we'll check into Dwarika's Resort —an essay in holistic hospitality. The resort is designed to take in the best high Himalayan views while providing (to use the obvious metaphor) top-of-the-range food, drink and accommodation; plus there are a dozen or more ways to let time slip by unnoticed.

You can join the various activities such as:

Yoga & Meditation sessions

Pottery classes

Art classes

Early morning hike to hotel farm (1.5 hours - one way) and interact with the gardeners

Chakra meditation sessions

Various spa treatments

Culinary classes with resort chef

Consult with resort ayurveda practitioners

Gentle hikes around the resort

Breakfast

Sunday, October 13: Dhulikel

Day is at leisure to enjoy the many activities available in the resort.

Overnight Dwarika's Resort

Breakfast

Monday, October 14: Kathmandu – Paro, Bhutan by flight – Thimphu by road

After breakfast, check out and transfer to airport to board our scheduled flight to Paro.

The flight from Kathmandu to Paro provides the most dramatic view of Himalayan scenery of any scheduled flight- it's beautiful. We'll be met on arrival at the airport and then drive about 2 hours to the national capital of Bhutan – Thimphu.

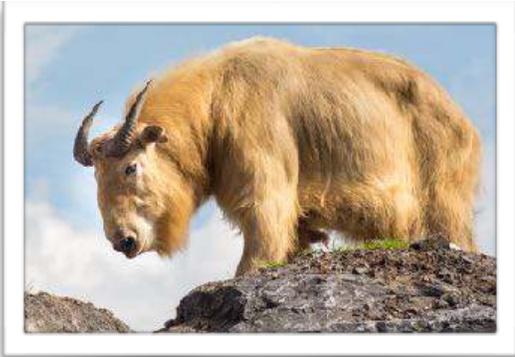

The remainder of the day is free for independent activities. There may be time to stroll down the main street for some interesting Himalayan artifacts or textiles. Thimphu is the most modern city in Bhutan with an abundance of restaurants, internet cafes, nightclubs and shopping centers, however it still retains its' cultural identity and values amidst the budding signs of modernization. It is also home to the royal family.

Overnight Zwiwa Ling Ascent Hotel - Deluxe rooms

Breakfast, Lunch (on the plane), Dinner

Tuesday, October 15: Thimphu

After breakfast, we head to the north end of the valley to view Trashi Chhoe Dzong, the seat of Bhutan's government and Royal offices, and pay a visit to Pangri Zampa, two 16th-century buildings that now house a monastic training school for traditional astrology.

Next up is a wildlife reserve area for the Takin, the national animal of Bhutan. Native to Bhutan, India, and China, the Takin are docile creatures whose unique appearance attracts special attention. The preserve is also home to a few native deer of Bhutan, including the barking deer and sambar.

Thangtong Dewachen Nunnery is the only nunnery in the Capital. It is popularly known as Zilukha Anim Dratshang. Here we may be able to interact with some of the 60 nuns who have devoted their lives to spirituality and Buddhism.

Archery is the national sport of Bhutan. Spectators marvel at the dexterity of these Bhutanese athletes and gasp as team members stand close to the target, sidestepping flying arrows. Two teams compete, each player shoots two arrows and the first team to get 33 points wins. The method of scoring is a little complicated, but each time an arrow hits the bull's eye, a short victory dance is performed.

We'll experience a version of the traditional game of archery. Two teams of local archers (2-3 people per team) will demonstrate using the classic bamboo bow and arrow. And then we have the opportunity to join the team and test our skills.

Overnight Zwiwa Ling Ascent Hotel

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Wednesday, October 16: Thimphu – Punakha by road

After breakfast, we check out and take a scenic 2-3 hour drive to Punakha.

Punakha, located in a sub-tropical valley with warm summers and pleasant winters, served as the capital of Bhutan until 1955, when the seat of government moved to Thimphu.

In the evening we visit Nalanda Monastery and interact with some of the more than 60 monks who are pursuing higher Buddhist studies and learning English as well. We chat with them while having tea and they are more than happy to practice their basic English language skills with us!

We end the day at our hotel, the Dhensa Boutique Resort, that sits in the heart of the verdant and lush Punakha Valley. Flanked by thick pine forests, it overlooks the Punakha River and hundreds of paddy fields that stair-step down to the valley floor. It is surrounded by plentiful walking and trekking trails.

Dhensa Punakha marries contemporary design with this Himalayan Kingdom's ancient and alluring ways. At the core of the Dhensa Punakha philosophy lies the sense of innocence and peace that permeates everything about Bhutan.

Overnight Dhensa Boutique Resort

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Thursday, October 17: Punakha

After breakfast, we take a hike to Khamsum Yelling temple perched on a hillock commanding magnificent views of the surrounding farmland. Hiking up to this temple is often described as being inside a painting; luckily we will be here in mid-autumn — the most beautiful time of the year.

Next we visit Punakha Dzong fortress which was built in 1637 to serve as the religious and administrative center of the region. Damaged over the centuries by catastrophic fires and an earthquake, the Dzong has been fully restored in recent years by the present monarch. The Dzong is placed strategically at the junction of the Pho Chu and Mo Chu rivers.

In the evening, we walk through a small village to Chimi Lhakhang (the Temple of the Divine Madman). Lama Drukpa Kinley, more commonly known as the “Divine Madman,” is one of Bhutan's favorite saints. He travelled throughout Bhutan and Tibet using songs, humor, and outrageous behavior to dramatize his teachings, believing that the stiffness of the clergy and social conventions were keeping people from learning the true Buddhist teachings. This site is still believed to hold fertility powers for women! From the vantage point of Chimi Lhakhang, there is a spectacular view of the Punakha Valley.

Overnight Dhensa Boutique Resort

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Friday, October 18: Punakha – Paro by road

After breakfast, we check out and drive to the town of Paro. The 4-hour drive passes beautiful villages and farmlands, crosses the Dochula pass (a little over 10,000 feet), where you have opportunity to view the peaks of the eastern Himalayas.

The beautiful alpine valley of Paro, located in western Bhutan, encapsulates a rich culture, scenic beauty and hundreds of myths and legends. It is home to many of Bhutan's oldest temples and monasteries, the country's only airport, and the National Museum. The town itself is very simple with one main street and a few basic shops. Mt. Chomolhari at a height of 23,950 feet reigns in white glory at the northern end of the valley (while the town lies at 7,200 feet) and its glacial waters plunge through deep gorges to form the Paro River. This valley is one of the kingdom's most fertile, producing the bulk of Bhutan's famous red rice from its terraced fields.

Later in the day we visit the National Museum, housed in the Ta Dzong (watchtower). Here, an intriguing collection of artifacts provides a wonderful introduction to the rich culture and heritage of the Kingdom.

Just a short walk downhill lays the dominating Paro Dzong, fine example of Bhutanese historic architecture.

Overnight Zhiwaling Heritage Hotel

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Saturday, October 19: Paro

In the morning, hike up to view one of Bhutan's most revered monuments, the Taktshang Goemba, more commonly referred to as the "Tiger's Nest". The four-hour hike offers spectacular views of this sacred monastery perched on a cliff face 2,950 feet above the valley floor. The visit is followed by a picnic lunch in a scenic spots

NOTE: Ponies can be arranged for those who would prefer not to hike to the monastery.

Time permitting later in the day, we visit a farmhouse and join the family for a cup of local tea. You can observe and help the family with their daily tasks such as taking care of the livestock and tending to the crops. Over 85% of Bhutanese still practice subsistence farming and this affords an authentic encounter with the Bhutanese traditional way of life.

Every year, tourists numbering more than twice the population of Agra pass through its gates to catch a once-in-a-lifetime glimpse of what is widely considered the most beautiful building in the world. Few leave disappointed. Return to the hotel for breakfast before departing Agra.

This trip is operated by our partner, IBEX Expeditions, and subject to its terms and conditions.

Deposit: A deposit of $2500 per person is required at time of booking to confirm the reservation. Bhutan requires pre-payment to confirm accommodations, so the deposit is non-refundable. IBEX Expeditions reserves the right to request additional payment at any stage should supplier conditions so require.

Final payment: Final payment is due 90 days prior to departure.

Payments can be paid in the form of check made payable to On The Map Travel, LLC. There is a 3.5% merchant services fee to pay by credit card.

Travel Insurance: On The Map Travel recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan to help protect you and your travel investment against the unexpected, including coverage for Trip Cancellation, Trip Interruption, Emergency Medical and Emergency Evacuation/Repatriation, Trip Delay, Baggage Delay and more.

A Word about On The Map Travel Air Service

International air fare from your home town to join the program in Kathmandu and return from Delhi is not included in the tour price.

Shopping for such flights can be bewildering, and the mix of websites and discounts often emphasize price over comfort, specifically regarding timing and number of stops en route.

On The Map Travel can arrange your international flights to join the trip and return home afterwards; for this we charge $100 fee per person and there are several reasons why we believe this is a good idea.

- We offer competitive air fares, particularly in business class

- We can often use your points from airlines and credit cards
- You will have access to a private 24-hour phone service in case of flight delays or flight changes. This is so much better than waiting at an airline counter for airport personnel to sort things out.

Our air service in combination with our travel insurance can even compensate you for delays or changes. We will provide complete information regarding travel insurance after you reserve.

The transfers to your hotels both on arrival and departure are included if we book your flights. If you book your own, we can arrange a transfer for you for a modest fee.
